DEDICATION

The Board of Selectmen hereby dedicates the 1986 Town of Raymond Annual Report to the memory of George C. Gove. A native son, his record of public service over nearly half a century is certainly worthy of this recognition. He served as Trustee of Trust Funds, Supervisor of the Checklist, Delegate to N. H. Constitutional Conventions, President of Raymond Industrial Association, President of Raymond Athletic Club, and two terms as a Selectman.

Perhaps his greatest contributions were as a private citizen when he accepted the chairmanship of a committee in 1957 to extensively up-date the town's water system and his efforts in 1968 to enlarge and beautify the Pine Grove Cemetery.

Often sought out by residents and town officials for his advice and counsel, George's influence in the community over the years has been profound.

The passing of his kind is indeed a loss; our only consolation is that Raymond today is a better place for his commitment and service.

RECREATION YESTERDAY AND TODAY

The Raymond Recreation Commission was officially established at the 1976 Town Meeting to provide year round recreation activities but this certainly was not the town's first steps in providing recreation activities. Actually the Summer Playground which exists today began in the summer of 1954. Approximately 75 children attended the weekly morning program which was supported with donations by local merchants, bake sales and tag days.

Cynthia Holt Gagnon and Melvin Cross were the directors of that first summer program. Cynthia received $75 and Melvin $125 for the summer (Melvin was in college and needed more). Support by parents and volunteers kept the program running. In those days you could still buy ten-cent ice cream cones at Fasekis Fruit Store (now Raymond Fruit). Fridays were Parade Days, and everyone that entered the parade was a winner and received a trip to Candy Land or the Fruit Store for their prize.

The first Little League team was formed that year as a result of the summer program. The summer swimming program also began then. Every afternoon Herman Clock would load the bus with eager kids and take them to Camp Se Sa Maca, to the Boy Scout Camp and eventually to Langford's Beach (now the town beach) for swim lessons. The shop at the high school was used by the playground kids to build their soap box derby racers for their annual race.

The high point of each season was always the giant field day. Everyone participated—children, parents and volunteers. There were three-legged races, egg tosses and sack races as well as a huge craft fair.

The newly established Recreation Commission took over the operations of the summer program in 1976 and hired its first full-time, year round Recreation Director, Rick Bates, in June 1977. With strong community support the Recreation Department has blossomed into a well-rounded program for adults as well as for children. In those early days the support of local volunteers proved cruicial for the success of the program, and this still holds true today, as many people volunteer in programs run directly by the Recreation Department or other service oriented organizations. The Raymond Youth Athletic Association which currently runs the Little League consisting of 15 teams has an extensive volunteer support network. Scouting, both boys and girls, is alive and well in Raymond again due to the hard work of volunteers. The Raymond Youth Soccer Club, the Raymond Arts Associates, Aerobics and Pop Warner Football are all run by volunteers. These are some of the many activities which are supported in full or in part by the spirit of volunteerism.

It has been one of the goals of the Recreation Department to encourage this type of cooperative community spirit by providing whatever support is necessary to help volunteers do their jobs and then filling in the spaces with direct sponsorship of programs. Over the years the Recreation Department has grown but not to the point where it is a cumbersome bureaucratic structure bogged down by its own existence. Our aim is to find ways to help things happen rather than finding reasons they can't.

SALARY/WAGE CLASSIFICATION SYSTEM

TOWN OF RAYMOND

In an effort to provide a system of salary/wage increases that insures that positions be paid comparable wages to similar positions in communities in towns the size of Raymond, and to initiate a system of merit advancement together with a "cost of living" increase, the following system and accompanying policies shall be in effect. It should be noted that steps do not necessarily coincide with years of experience.

INCOMING EMPLOYEES

Before placing an incoming employee on an appropriate step, the supervisor/department head shall evaluate the prospective employee's background and experience to determine placement on the schedule. Generally speaking, incoming employees shall not be placed on a higher step than present employees in that job classification.

COST OF LIVING ADJUSTMENT

Each year in October, the schedule shall be adjusted to reflect the most recent rate of national inflation for the previous nine months as determined by the U.S. Department of Commerce. This cost of living adjustment will be in effect for the ensuing calendar/fiscal year beginning January 1 and ending December 31. The employee will receive this adjustment as indicated at his/her respective step on the adjusted schedule January 1.

ADVANCEMENT TO NEXT STEP

Upon recommendation by the supervisor/department head and approval of the Board of Selectmen, an employee shall advance to the next step. Such advancement and increase in salary shall become effective April 1, non-retroactive. Such advancement shall reflect an employee's performance, as determined by evaluation of his/her supervisor/department head.

FAILURE TO ADVANCE

If an employee's performance should fall below expected levels, the step advancement may be withheld by the Board of Selectmen.

SUPERVISOR/DEPARTMENT HEAD

For purposes of this policy, the following positions shall be considered by the Board of Selectmen as supervisors and/or department heads:

Administrative Assistant
Police Chief
Fire Chief
Road Agent
Head Dispatcher
Town Clerk/Tax Collector
Recreation Director
Building/Health Inspector

JOB WAGE/SALARY SCHEDULE CHANGE

The salary range outlined shall be up-dated by the Board of Selectmen when, in its opinion, the salary range of a particular position is no longer commensurate with similar positions in similar communities. The Board of Selectmen will review this with the supervisor/department head before making any changes.

VOTER APPROVAL

All salary increases shall be contingent upon voter approval at the annual town meeting.

OTHER

The Board of Selectmen shall reserve the right to change or modify any of the foregoing policies in the best interest of the citizens and/or taxpayers of the Town.

Approved: October 28, 1985

SAFETY COMPLEX COMMITTEE

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

In accordance with a March 1986 Town Meeting vote, the Safety Complex Committee expanded its community representation and continued its study and investigation of the development of a safety complex plan. (The Committee had been formed in 1985 by the Board of Selectmen acting on a recommendation of the Town of Raymond Master Plan adopted in 1981 that the town should address the present and future needs of town safety service facilities.)

Members of the Committee include:

Richard A. Davis, Chairman and Civil Defense Director
Susan Z. Davis, President,
Raymond Ambulance Association
Gordon Gould, Fire Chief
Richard Dolan, Police Chief
Marian Lovejoy, Head Dispatcher
Richard Mailhot, Building Inspector/
Health Officer
Sally Paradis, Board of Selectmen Representative
John Ornell, Community Representative
Sandra Ellis, Community Representative
Fred Curley, Community Representative
Daniel Roy, Community Representative
Reginald Maisey, Community Representative

In May of 1986, the Committee interviewed architectural firms and recommended that Homer P. Young, Jr., Associates, Inc. of Haverhill, Massachusetts be retained to: (1) survey the existing town hall, fire house and library, (2) assist in site selection, and (3) prepare preliminary plans and costs for the safety complex.

In October, the Committee received the architect's review and recommendations of town facilities. This report (complete report on file at the Raymond Town Office) contains many alternatives and costs estimates of combinations explored; however, the Committee agreed to pursue the following:

1. That a new police/fire station (safety complex) be constructed. Given budgetary constraints, this could be undertaken in a phased process.
2. That an addition be placed on the town office building.
3. That the Dudley Tucker Library be relocated to another site in order that additional space could be provided and the building could be brought into compliance with the handicapped accessibility code.

Site Selection

Several sites in town were considered for the location of a new police/fire station, and the Regis property on the corner of Old Manchester Road and Wight Street was selected for its location near the "center" of town. However, soil borings and testing was conducted on the site in November and the extent to which the area had been filled with residual tanning materials would require additional expense in excavating this material and hauling in acceptable fill to support a building and septic system. Other sites were explored and the town/school district owned land on Old Manchester Road between the elementary school and the pre-existing B&M Railroad crossing is the recommended site for the facility.

Committee Recommendations

1. Police/Fire Complex

   In keeping with the Town Meeting vote of 1986, the Safety Complex Committee will report and recommend at the 1987 Town Meeting that the construction of a police/fire station be undertaken. The Committee has attained public opinion and determined that a full Safety Complex to house all emergency departments be constructed at a cost of $1,371,150.00.

   Future Fire Substation

   Information gathered by the Fire Department and provided to the architectural firm as to the origin of fire calls during 1984, 1985, and 1986 was reviewed. The study indicated that the response to fire calls was still the highest in the downtown areas of the community, along Route 27, and a fairly heavy concentration along Fremont Road and the Green Hills area. The Committee concluded that a substation in itself would not solve the immediate needs, however, would recommend that the construction of an auxilliary station be reviewed within the next few years to determine its feasibility and desirability depending upon conditions at that time.

2. Town Office Building

   The Committee will also recommend that an addition to the town office building be undertaken at an estimated cost of $300,760.00 This would also include renovations in the existing structure to provide a more efficient use of space and adequate heating and ventilation.

3. Library

   While the Committee was not charged with reporting on future needs for town buildings other than a safety complex, at a request of the Library Trustees, the services of Homer P. Young, Jr., Associates were utilized to review the Dudley Tucker Library. The Committee, in conjunction with the trustees, recommends the re-location of this building to another centrally located site in order to provide adequate space for expansion, parking and compliance with handicapped codes. The cost to accomplish Phase I of this project is estimated at $333,800.00

Project Financing:

The Committee recommends that the capital projects be accomplished with a bond issue for the complete project to ensure the continuous development of all aspects.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard A. Davis, Chairman
Safety Complex Committee

WATER DEPARTMENT REVIEW COMMITTEE

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

At the March 1986 Town Meeting, the citizens of Raymond voted to establish a committee to "study the Raymond Water Department". This committee was to be made up to two Selectmen, one Water Commissioner, two water users and two non-water users. The Selectmen appointed Ron Simone and Michael Quintal; the Water Commissioners appointed Mike Greenwood; the Town Moderator appointed Hugh Holt, Roland Kimball, Mary Lou White and Richard Audette.

On July 8, 1986 the Committee held its first meeting. At that meeting we studied the "charge" to the Committee and agreed that the purpose of the Committee is to clarify ownership and accountability, decision making, and authority regarding the existing water system.

Over the summer and fall of 1986, the Committee held several meetings. The research which was done by the Committee included the following:

- Research of the Charters of February 9, 1893
- Research of the town meeting on February 28, 1893, at which the voters approved the Charter.
- Research of other town meetings which provided information about the Water Department.
- The bylaws and policies of the Raymond Water Department.
- Minutes of meetings and other policies of the Selectmen's Office regarding the Water Department.
- Information from other towns regarding the operations of their water departments.

As a result of the research, the Committee concluded the following:

1. On February 9, 1893, the Raymond Water Works was incorporated by the New Hampshire Legislature.
2. On February 28, 1893, the Water Works was established by the voters funding the Water Works. (Page 5, Section 14 of Charter 3.)
3. It is the opinion of the Committee that the Raymond Water Department is working in accordance with its charter, and at this time it would be unwise to change it.

At the last meeting of the Water Department Review Committee, the Committee and the Water Commissioners agreed to several recommendations. These include:

1. That the Water Department would meet with citizens at public meetings several times a year to discuss problems, policies, etc.
2. The Water Department would meet with the Selectmen when they feel the Selectmen should be informed of some aspect(s) of the Water Department.
3. Once the note, signed by the town for the Water Department, is paid, all assets of the Water Department will be returned by the town to the Water Department.
4. That at least one Water Department employee will be certified or licensed by the State.
5. Audits and reports of the Water Department should be printed in the Town Report.
6. The Water Commissioners shall seek legal advice to review the bylaws and charter to see if any changes need to be made.

The Committee hopes that through its research and the recommendations it has made, that we have fulfilled the wishes of the voters of the 1986 Town Meeting.

Sincerely,

Michael Quintal, Chairman
Richard Audette
Mike Greenwood
Roland Kimball
Ronald Simone
Mary Lou White

The Raymond Ambulance Fund Association, Inc., is staffed 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, by volunteers. People helping people, they never receive any monies, they just want to be there to help when needed. On the average, we have approximately 25 members, who give of themselves to aid the public. For this, we must thank each and every one of them for such a great sacrifice. Also, we should thank the families of these members for their consideration and patience, as they are also very special people to understand that at any time, regardless of day or night, weekday or weekend, Holiday or not, their husband or wife with no notice may be called away to help another.

The members of the Raymond Ambulance would like to sincerely thank the Raymond Police Officers, Firemen and Dispatch for all their help throughout the year as they are always there, when we need them.

Respectfully submitted,

BUILDING INSPECTOR/HEALTH OFFICER

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

Once again Raymond has had the distinction of being the tenth fastest growing town in the state.

One hundred ninety new homes were erected this year, which represents a growth rate of 9.3%. The new homes are expected to represent five hundred fifty new residents of which we can expect eighty five school aged children.

Our residential growth in 1986 will represent an expansion of our tax base of $12,300,000.00 when completed.

Our commercial and industrial tax base increase will result in another $1,300,000.00 for a total of $13,600,000.00.

These figures represent only the actual construction costs associated with each area and not the increased land values which development creates.

I am proposing to expand the inspectional services to septic installations in the coming year as I am seeing a dramatic increase in failed systems, usually attributable to faulty design criteria or installation, something I feel closer scrutiny can improve.

With your support we can begin this service before the 1987 construction season, and once again make strides towards the improvement of housing stocks and quality of life.

I wish to extend my thanks for a great year to Raymond's citizens for their continued support.

Richard Mailhot
Building Inspector/Health Officer

RAYMOND CIVIL DEFENSE

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

Modern day Civil Defense is more involved in formulating plans to mitigate damages due to natural or man-made disasters than in conducting air raid drills. This is reflected in the Federal Government in changing the title of Civil Defense Agency to F.E.M.A. (Federal Emergency Management Agency).

On the local level the town has a "Basic Emergency Management Plan" which is put together by the Raymond Civil Defense personnel to give local officials guidelines to handle emergencies or disasters. This plan proved very helpful during last year's Hurricane warning.

The plan must be updated yearly due to changes in personnel and equipment available to the town.

In the recent years, FEMA has conducted seminars and courses in a wide scope of Emergency planning and mitigation. In 1986, the Fire Chief and Lt. Paul Hammond, as well as myself, attended a 40-hour course in Emergency Planning Techniques. Also, this past year Richard McLaughlin, Training Officer for the Raymond Amubulance, attended an Emergency Medical Service Course, which showed the EMS role in disaster planning. Another training aid made available from FEMA has been teleconferences and these seminars via satellite are on a variety of topics, may be attended by local officials in Concord, sponsored by the NH Civil Defense Agency. Finding it difficult for many officials to attend many of these teleconferences due to their full-time jobs, I have been able to enlist a local resident, Sandra Ellis, to record these seminars on audio-visual equipment that she has, enabling this department to start an Emergency Training and Planning Aid Film Library.

In 1986 this department assisted the Raymond Fire Department and Ambulance Associaiton in their classes and practice sessions with rope training.

The other members of the Raymond Civil Defense, Deputy Director Burgess Robinson and Secretary Susan Davis, as well as myself, receive many types of training in our full-time employment as well as the other volunteer organizations we belong to, that assist us in doing Emergency Planning for the town.

As Civil Defense Director, I have also served on the Raymond Safety Complex Committee to make a report to the Selectmen as to the Town of Raymond's needs in regard to a Safety Complex.

Again this year approximately 50% of the Civil Defense budget has been reimbursed by the Federal Government.

In 1987 this agency hopes to conduct at least one disaster drill involving all agencies that are included in the town's basic emergency management plan.

I would like to thank the other members of the Civil Defense Agency, the members of the Raymond Ambulance Fund Association, Raymond Fire Department, Raymond Police Department, Raymond Dispatch, Highway Department and Selectmen for their assistance throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Davis, Director
Raymond Civil Defense

RAYMOND DISPATCH CENTER

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

1986 brought some changes to the Dispatch Center. We lost a few feet from the Dispatch area for a new hallway. The old hallway is now an office for the Head Dispatcher/Police Secretary. We welcomed aboard Cheryl Raymond as a full-time Dispatcher on the third shift.

The Head Dispatcher took on the duties of Secretary to the Police Department. The secretary is kept busy with all the reports and correspondence generated by the Police Department and still works at keeping the Dispatch running smoothly and fills in as Dispatcher on an emergency basis. The secretary position has been a great help to the on-duty dispatchers as now they can devote more time to the important job of assisting the many people that come into the station, answering phone calls and dispatching the necessary departments.

We are all looking forward to the possibility of a new complex. This will be a great improvement for all departments involved. The Town of Raymond is growing at such a rapid pace that all departments are feeling the pinch of inadequate space and we join with all other departments in the hope that the community will make themselves aware of the problems and support the Warrant Article.

We would like to thank all the departments who we assist and work with, for their cooperation and support. This includes the Raymond Police Department, Raymond Fire Department, Raymond Highway Department, Raymond Ambulance Association and Fremont and Deerfield Fire and Rescue Departments. We would also like to thank the people of Raymond for their support and assistance in continuing to work together to make this a good and safe place to live.

We are proud to be a part of a team of dedicated public servants.

Respectfully submitted,
Marian E. Lovejoy, Head Dispatcher

RAYMOND FIRE DEPARTMENT

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

The Raymond Fire Department responded to 205 calls in 1986, broken down as follows:

Accidents	31
Brush Fires	29
Car Fires	20
Chimney Fires	13
Electrical Problems	12
False Alarms	33
Wash Downs	10
Jaws of Life	2
Miscellaneous	15
Mutual Aid	15
Service calls	4
Smoke Investigations	8
Structure Fires	13

We did 329 inspections, broken down as follows:

Chimney and fireplace	83
Fire safety	27
Foster Home and Day Care	10
Miscellaneous	18
Occupancy	130
Oil Burner	45
Woodstove	47

The value of property involved in fires in 1986 was approximately $532,000.00 with an estimated loss of $120,000.00.

A sincere 'Thank You' is in order for all the Firemen who have put in more than 4,000 manhours fighting fire in all kinds of weather and all hours of the day and night, training and maintaining equipment. They have traveled more than 600 miles to these fires and training. A special 'Thank You' is in order for the Firemen's wives and families that have put up with interrupted meals and other family functions.

Paul Hammond was hired at the end of May as a full time Fire Lieutenant. He has been a very big help with inspections and maintenance of equipment. He has made it possible for someone to be available in the station while I am on vacation. Paul was a volunteer for 7 years and is State certified in Firefighter I and Career Firefighter. He also has an Advanced First Aid certificate.

All of our equipment is in good shape and ready to roll whenever needed. We purchased 2 cold water survival suits this year. They will be used for cold water rescues. We have trained with them, ropes and rescue, foam, extinguishers and had some excellent training in all aspects of firefighting when we burned a house on School St. for the owners who had had a serious fire a year ago.

I would take this opportunity to remind you that we will inspect wood stoves for proper and safe installation. We have information available at the Fire Station on wood stove installation, also keep those chimneys clean.

Respectfully submitted,
Gordon E Gould, Fire Chief

DUDLEY-TUCKER LIBRARY

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

The Dudley-Tucker Library has seen many changes in 1986. The continued growth in town has mandated an update in the patrons files, which led to a new patron registration program being started. Along with the revision of patrons files, actual library cards are now being issued.

An IBM-PCXT computer has been installed and is currently being used to update all files and catalog new materials. Additional programs will be introduced during 1987.

Regular library programs include Story Time for preschoolers at 10:30 on Tuesday mornings and a once-a-month childrens film program. The Epping/Raymond Head Start, Windy Hill preschool, and Village Kindergarten regularly attend the monthly film showings. Our Summer Reading Program was based on the Reading Rainbow books as seen on Public Service TV.

The library is used tbrough-out the scbool year as an educational field trip by the Raymond schools. Readiness through high school classes have visited the library in groups.

Janet D. Brown, Librarian for 8 years, resigned in mid-September. She is now the Adult Services Director at the Merrimack Public Library. During her years at the DudleyTucker Library, she worked diligently to provide the library services needed by the residents of Raymond. Her dedication and hard work have created a library of which we can all be proud.

October, 1986, saw the formation of a very active and involved Friends of the Library Group. I look forward to working with the Friends during the coming year on some very exciting additions to present library services.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT SUPERVISOR

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

In 1986, Raymond saw considerable growth and development, which resulted in a busy year for the Highway Department.

The final section in the reconstruction of Epping Street was completed. Approximately 1,000 feet of each of the following roads were shimmed and overlaid with hot top: Prescott Road, Francesca Drive and Onway Lake Road. The following roads were prepped and seal coated: Lane Road (3 miles), Old Bye Road (2/10 mile), John Street (2/10 mile), David Drive (5/10 mile), Green Road (3/10 mile), Harriman Hill Road (6/10 mile), Pierce Road (4/10 mile) and Adams Way (2/10 mile). These roads were chosen to be seal coated because they had been reconstructed in previous years, or are fairly new roads.

SUBDIVISIONS: At this time we have six subdivisions under construction, which will result in more roads to plow and maintain. We pick up approximatley four miles of new road each year. As a result, when we have a snow storm, the crew may be required to work continuously for two or three days at a time.

DRIVEWAY PERMITS: A total of 57 driveway permits were issued in 1986.

EQUIPMENT: Our equipment is in good shape at this time. We are in need of another plow truck with a wing and sander. If we continue to clean the school parking lots (which will soon be increasing to three), and with the possibility of a safety complex parking lot, the need for a second hough loader will be imperative in the near future.

I would like to thank all of the departments that have worked with us throughout the year. I would also like to thank all of the employees, both full and part time, that make up the Highway Department crew.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard A. Hammond
Supervisor of Highway Department

THE POLICE CHIEF

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

This year the new Robert C. Erler Highway (Route 101) opened. The design has reduced the number of personal injury accidents drastically which, in turn, allowed Officers more time within the Community.

Our endeavor is to provide the best service and protection possible for all citizens of Raymond. In an effort to maintain this standard, our Officers have attended specialized training and seminars.

We have experienced some turn-over in personnel. Officer Rayeski joined the State Police and Officer Gatcomb was appointed Chief of Candia. We wish them both good luck and best wishes.

Sergeant Gendron has been very busy with investigations and Juvenile work. Officer Dyrkacz has filled the position of Field Training Officer. We find he has a unique understanding of the new unexperienced man. Officer Winterburn has been assisting with prosecutions and has been commended by the Court on his abilities. He will be attending school to sharpen his skills. Officer Coope completed the Police Academy in the top 1/3 of his class and is progressing well. Officer Dolan started the Academy on January 5, 1987. He learned well during his field training and we look forward to his graduation in March. We trust the articles introducing each of them in the 'Know Your Officer' column helped. We received good feed-back. Our Special Officers Robinson, McMullen, Bergman, Jalbert, Kerekes and Mercier are doing an excellent job keeping up with changing laws and filling in on short notice.

We are continuing with our visits to the school in an effort to improve our rapport with the students. We find it productive and rewarding.

The Hunter Safety Course was a success again this year. Bill Carney assisted us in graduating 17 students from this 20 hour course. We will continue to offer this program.

Town growth remains a challenge. We are extremely overcrowded in the present facilities and have been working with a committee in an effort to present a proposal for a Safety Facility that will adequately house Fire, Ambulance, Police, Dispatch and Civil Defense for the next ten years at our present growth.

It has been our pleasure to serve the Community during the past year. We have called on the Fire, Ambulance, and Highway Departments at inconvenient times to assist us. They always respond willingly. The Town Office Personnel, Selectmen, neighboring Towns and State Police have responded to our calls of mutual concerns. We are grateful and thankful to them for that cooperation. We wish to especially thank Marian Lovejoy and our dispatchers for their dedication, patience and reliability. We recognize them as your first impression of safety services and we deeply appreciate their support. It is also very important for us to recognize the wives, husbands, and families of our Police Officers, you are a very important part of our department. Thank you for all your efforts.

We hope to provide the same level of services in the coming year. Please keep us informed, report all suspicious activity in your neighborhood. Your reporting things in a timely fashion is your best crime prevention tool. We need and appreciate your support.

Respectfully submitted for the Department,
Richard E. Dolan, Chief
Sergeant Richard Gendron

RAYMOND RECREATION COMMISSION

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

"Death wish three" is what some of the summer playground kids called the monster slide at Water Country in Portsmouth. As the kids began coming down the slide at near free-fall speeds, I had second thoughts about this trip we had planned for the first time. When they began chanting "Den-nis! Den-nis!" at the bottom of the slide, trying to encourage one of their counselors over the edge, I was sure it was only a matter of time before the "I forgot my bathing suit" excuse wouldn't be good enough and I would have to come up with a new one ("I'm too old"..."chicken", or both). The looks in the eyes of everyone as they came down and ran out at the bottom of the slide convinced me that I should have chaperoned the younger kids who went on the trip to the York Zoo that day.

The trip to Water Country for the older kids and York Zoo for the younger ones were a few of the changes in this year's Summer Playground Program. Total registration for this year's program was up to 240 from last year's 207. The most dramatic shift was in the daily participation, with over 100 children on the playground many days and most trips filled at 120.

I attribute the dramatic increase in daily numbers to the switch of the program from the elementary school to the high school. This transition allowed the large number of students to spread out over many more acres of fields and facilities. Many parents volunteered to help with this year's program, which made the weekly cook-outs and trips to Pawtuckaway a great deal easier for the staff counselors and safer for the kids.

The trip to Canobie Lake Park is always a popular one, but this year nearly 160 children signed up for the very first trip! We rented an additional bus but it was soon apparent that an additional bus was not the sole solution to the problem. With 160 potential participants on each trip we would also need to double our adult chaperones in order to provide for a safe trip. We are able to handle a few more children on the playground without compromising safety but it is quite a scene to unload 120 yellow-shirted children at Ordione State Park or at the aerial tram at Cannon Mountain or the Flume.

In the end most of the places we visited complimented the Raymond kids on their behavior and on how well organized they were. This is due in a large part to the efforts of the adult chaperones and the playground staff who enjoy what they do and enjoy being with the kids.

Overall, we had the usual events and arts and crafts as well as weekly trips to Pawtuckaway State Park and special trips to Canobie Lake, Cannon Mountain, the Flume, Ordione State Park, Squam Lake Science Center, the Viking Sun and Prescott Park, Water Country and the York Zoo, and Chuck-E-Cheese. We also had "Skating in the Rain"-rollerskating at Happy Wheels-to fill in the rainy days (there were several). In all, if a child went on every trip available, the cost to parents was $45. When the dust settled at the end of the summer we were able to turn back $2,826 to the town as revenue from the program.

The summer swimming program at Onway Lake was again very popular and it was a great relief to me and to the parents that Anne Edwards decided to return to teach swimming. Her sister Christine provided lifeguard coverage and Krystyn Langford worked as a swimming aide. In spite of the rainy weather the program did get through two sessions of lessons.

Lifeguards were again a major problem at the beach, and Christine and Anne are to be commended for their commitment and long hours. Lack of lifeguards was a problem statewide. With more and more private swimming areas and commercial pools and water slides opening up (remember "death wish three"), the supply of guards is drying up.

As always, the adult programs were very popular, with aerobics, volleyball and men's basketball topping the list. Many sessions of aerobics were filled to capacity at 70 participants. The Youth Soccer Club sponsored by the Recreation Department continues to grow, and this past year the club sponsored a Seacoast Soccer Jamboree, hosting twenty teams for a day of excitement and competition here in Raymond.

The Learn-to-Ski Program gained in popularity in 1986 with 45 high school and middle school students skiing at Highland Ski Area in Northfield. For forty dollars they received six weeks of skiing from 3:30 until 7 PM, including lessons, rentals and transportation. Due to illness or other commitments on the part of chaperones, several of the trips were chaperoned by only me. This led to sympathetic looks by parents, some referrals to my sanity, and great amounts of pity — however I must say it was very enjoyable. The kids handled the responsibility extremely well and there were very few problems throughout the season, which ended with a special day-long ski during February vacation.

The summer program of 1987 marks the beginning of my 10th year (amazing how time flies), and probably my easiest, due to the number of volunteers who work long hours to see that each of their particular projects runs smoothly. Without the help and support of these volunteers many of the programs sponsored in full or in part by the Recreation Department would not be the successes they are. It has been our policy here to help as many local groups as possible by providing whatever small services we can. By developing programs in which people establish their priorities, I believe we develop programs that more clearly meet needs and reflect the face of Raymond in general.

Remember "death wish three"? I didn't have to go down the slide but had to resort to my alternate excuse "I'm too old!", which the kids believed without any argument — NONE WHATSOEVER — which saved me from the slide but suddenly made me realize that, in the eyes of pre-teens, I WAS TOO OLD (when, in fact, I was just chicken).

LAMPREY HEALTH CARE

1986 ANNUAL REPORT

Lamprey Health Care (formerly the Newmarket Regional Health Center) marks its sixteenth year of providing services during 1987. Lamprey Health Care operates two medical offices, one in Newmarket and one in Raymond. Both facilities provide general medical care, preventive health services, community outreach, social services and short term counseling with referreal to mental health agencies. Services also offered by Lamprey Health Care include Senior Citizen Transportation and Information & Referral Services for Rockingham County.

The change of name from the Newmarket Regional Health Center to Lamprey Health Care was the result of a long and careful planning process. The word Lamprey was chosen because it brings a sense of history and indicates the wider geographic region we serve. Health Care was chosen because it best summarizes what we do and what we believe in.

Along with our new name, 1986 was a year of big changes for Lamprey Health Care. In January, the new Raymond facility opened on Route 27. The new 6,200 square foot facility allows Lamprey Health Care to provide more services in a spacious modern facility to the residents of the Raymond area. The Board and Staff of Lamprey Health Care are in the planning process for a new facility in Newmarket to replace the current one on Elm Street.

Paul Friedrichs, M.D., a Family Practitioner, joined the staff in June, as did John Mark Blowen, Family Nurse Practitioner. They join Edward Benoit, M.D. and Karen Brainard, M.D., Family Practitioners; Cynthia Rasmussen, M.D., Obstetrician/Gynecologist; Sarah Oxnard, M.D., Pediatrician; Michael Lewis, P.A.-C.; Barbara Janeway, A.R.N.P.; and Anne Fawcett, A.R.N.P. to the medical team for Lamprey Health Care. In June of 1987, Micki Kantrowitz, M.D., Family Practitioner, will join the staff. The addition of physicians in recent years allows Lamprey Health Care to serve the growing population of this area effectively.

Under the direction of Dr. Rasmussen, Lamprey Health Care offers a prenatal program which includes prenatal, delivery, and postpartum care. Other components of the program include nutritional counseling, prenatal classes and social service referral.

Lamprey Health Care continues to operate the Senior Citizen Transportation Program. In December of 1986, Lamprey Health Care purchased two new 18+ passenger buses to replace two buses with many miles and high maintenance costs. These two new buses were purchased in cooperation with COAST (The Cooperative Alliance for Seacoast Transportation) and are a welcome addition to our fleet of buses. Three of the five buses are equipped with hydraulic lifts to provide services to the handicapped. The transportation service enables senior citizens to remain independent, self-sufficient and active by providing the means to needed services, including medical, food shopping and recreational trips. For further information, call 659-2424 or toll-free, 1-800-582-7279.

In early 1987, a new medical information program will be available. Tel-Med is a taped library of "non-diagnostic" health information designed to provide basic facts about certain diseases, conditions or health issues. The library will contain 200 taped messages which can be accessed 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, by residents with touch-tone phones and Monday-Friday from 8 AM to 4 PM by residents with rotary dial. The numbers to call to reach Tel-Med are 433-3232 and 433-3242, and 659-7514 and 659-7516. The Tel-Med Program is funded by the Foundation for Seacoast Health of Portsmouth. For more information about Tel-Med, call 659-3106.

Lamprey Health Care wishes to express its deepest appreciation for the support of the town of Raymond.

Respectfully submitted,

Ann H. Peters
Executive Director

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Effective July 1, 1986, Raymond's SAU #33 became official. Soon thereafter, the Raymond School Board adopted an ambitious list of objectives (listed in Chairperson Ellis' report.) The organization, or category of activities of the new SAU was recommended and approved by the School Board in response to the need to establish an efficient work flow.

Category of Activities - SAU Office
Responsibilities of the Superintendent of Schools

Community Information and Relations
Curriculum and Instruction
Facilities (Buildings, Grounds, Non-Instructional Equipment)
Finance
Food Services
Personnel
School Board
State Education Department
Transportation

These activities define the major divisions of responsibilities which establish the total operational aspect of the school system. Assistant Superintendent Cheryl Stratchko is assigned the administrative responsibilities for curriculum and instruction plus all certified personnel. She reports directly to the Superintendent of Schools, who in turn reports to the School Board.

Each of the basic activities are organized in line formation which leads from the SAU office to the point of operation. For example, discussion of classroom instructional standards leads to discussion at the building level which leads to classroom activity which affects students. Actual accomplishments to date include the:

— determination of direction for each area of activity
— development of a school district/community newsletter
— organization of the SAU business office which includes payroll, purchasing, accounts receivable, and accounting (started by Ms. Stratchko in 1985)
— development of personnel forms; implementation of evaluation procedures and refinement of employment practices
— recasting of the budget format including expenditure identification by location — development of transportation trip lists, revision of specifications, and needs projections for 1987
— revised and updated planning for the new high school

The 1986-87 school year is just the beginning of Raymond's public school drive for excellence. Top on the list of priorities is:

— to stabilize the teaching staff
— to construct the new high school and renovate the middle school
— to meet all state standards and create the most effective curriculum and instructional delivery system possible
— to fine tune processes and in some areas create administrative systems that support the instructional effort

The first year has been a new venture for almost all of the people connected with the Raymond schools. What was a relatively small program a few years ago has grown into a six and one-half million dollar school system employing over one hundred and sixty-five people. Good schools providing good instruction cost money, time and effort. I think we all agree that the future of Raymond's children represents an investment that cannot be shortchanged. Be assured that we are all committed to the delivery of excellence.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

This year, many positive steps are being taken in the Raymond School District. On July lst we entered into our first year with our own SAU. Heading the SAU 33 office you will find Dr. James S. Carnrite, Superintendent, and Cheryl A. Stratchko, Assistant Superintendent. The activities of the central office fall into basic categories, the responsibilities of which are divided up between the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent.

Each year, the School Board members, with suggestions by the Superintendent, set goals. Listed below are 13 we selected: (Numbers 2 through 13 are not prioritized.)

1. The construction of the new Raymond High School
2. The planning for the renovation of the Raymond Middle School
3. The development of a district-wide music program
4. The selection, development and retention of all staff members who will meet performance standards of excellence
5. The development of a planned public relations program which will improve the image of the Raymond Schools
6. The development of an accountability system for administrators
7. The improvement of teacher morale
8. The improvement of the buildings and grounds maintenance program
9. The development and uniform administration of standards of student behavior
10. The reinforcement and improvement of student literacy
11. The review and evaluation of the transportation system
12. The improvement of student achievement
13. The development of curriculum programs of instruction that provide equal, consistent, educational opportunity

Another step forward for the school district is the construction now underway on Harriman Hill Road — the site of our new high school. Hopefully, we will be able to enter the classroom wing by September 1987, if not, definitely by December 1987, with the facility totally completed by July 1988.

This year, many of you have seen a new administrator at our high school. We have been very lucky to have Denis Joy in the position of principal. At this point the School Board feels we have an excellent administrative leadership in all three schools and see a positive educational future for the schools of Raymond.

The State standards ratings for our schools are improving. At the elementary school, since installation of the portable classrooms, we have again earned the category of IB — the highest possible rating for an elementary school without a kindergarten. Our middle school is an Approved Provisional middle school. Our problem is that instructional time in art and music are not met and staffing in industrial arts is incomplete. The high school has improved since last year, but still rated Conditionally Approved. The three items needed to comply with the State will be met when the new school is occupied. All three items are space related.

In the middle school this year, a special program is being offered to 8th grade advanced students called Introduction of Algebra. It will be a challenge, giving students a background in Algebra, and a chance for them to take advanced level math courses in high school. A high school credit will be given.

This September we started negotiations with the Raymond Teachers Organization, and as I write this report, we are at impasse. If you compare us with surrounding towns or towns of our size, our teachers are poorly paid. The School Board sees this, agrees with this, and wants to do something about it. The School Board feels they should be given a substantial increase, but want something in return for our children in Raymond.

Our budget this year was a very difficult one to put together and the School Board feels the administration did a fine job. The bond this year is going to hit the townspeople very hard, therefore, we have kept the budget as close to last year as possible. When you examine the school budget, please bear in mind there are certain obligations such as benefits, special education costs, transportation, contracted salaries, and the bond. You will then realize that our budget is in line when you consider the opening of another building.

There are many exciting things happening here in Raymond at our schools. The future for us is a very positive one, but there always seems to be something thrown in the path and it takes extra time to step over the obstacle. We all have to work together to reach our goals. With the townspeople's support I know we will get there and you will all be very proud of the Raymond School District. A special thanks to all for making Raymond Schools a better educational school system.

RAYMOND STAFF DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

When the 1986-87 school year started, the Staff Development Committee knew there was a challenge ahead of us. This being the end of our five-year program, Raymond's Master Plan had to be updated, necessitating a visit from Alexander J. Blastos, State Department of Education.

On December 11, 1986, Mr. Blastos came and spent the entire day in Raymond. He met with SAU administration, administration and personnel from each school, and then a final meeting with the Staff Development Committee. I wish I could put in this report the areas Mr. Blastos commended us on (schools, administration, staff and students) — you'd be very proud. He also gave us a few areas that the Staff Development Committee could work on in the new Master Plan. We will follow his suggestions as we write the plan since the final approval comes from the State Department of Education.

This year, the Staff Development Committee has already presented many workshops. Again, most were taught by our own staff members. Listed below are workshops that the Staff Development Committee has offered to date:

Reading Instruction Workshop by Barbara Watts
Scott Foresman Workshop by Pat Peters
Attention Deficits and Hyperactivity Workshop by Dr. Storm
Nature Walk Workshop by L.R.E.S. Staff
Writing Workshop (How Do I Do This & Everything Else Too) by Marilyn Lindquist
Writing Workshop, For New Staff by Marilyn Lindquist
Computer Education by Shawn McDonough
Introduction to Thinking Skills by Bill Garnett
Gross Motor Activities by John Fulton
Project Wild Outdoors by Judith Silverberg

These workshops are open to the public if you would like to attend. Everyone is welcome.

At this time, I want to thank all the people who supported the workshops. Without their time and effort, we would not be as successful as we are. Also, a thank you to the people of Raymond for their support. And, if you have some spare time, take a walk around Raymond's Nature Trail located behind the Elementary School; I'm sure someone would give you a tour.

Lamprey River Elementary School

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

RODERICK D. CREPEAU — PRINCIPAL

The elementary school student soared over the 600 mark this September. "It's hard to believe there are so many kids," remarked one long time Raymond resident. Lamprey River Elementary is one of the largest elementary schools in New Hampshire and is still growing, especially in the primary grades, as seen in the table below in this 'snapshot' of our enrollment picture.

TABLE I

The four portable classrooms were opened in the nick of time to accommodate the growing numbers of students. Once last minute construction problems were solved, these leased additions received many favorable comments from parents, students and teachers.

The instructional space the portables provide allows us to use our library as a library, and again, achieve the highest possible rating for an elementary school without a kindergarten. Lamprey River's category IB rating is the direct result of community commitment to education and the many opportunities it offers to enrich the lives of children.

In addition to providing children with a healthy measure of the basics, (reading, writing, and arithmetic), Lamprey River faculty are developing an environmental studies program and are building a nature trail to take advantage of the natural opportunities our school site has to offer. It is our hope that this new program will expand our ability to nurture and develop your children's interest in and curiosity about the natural wonders all around us.

Providing opportunities for children to grow and develop is a shared responsibility between teachers and parents. Our PTO brings enchanting fairy tales, classic stories, such as: Treasure Island, and famous people such as: Lewis and Clark "alive" at special assembly programs through its sponsorship of our Performing Arts series. Students in our upper grades enjoy extra curricular offerings including sports, band, and chorus. All students enjoy our new focus on nature assemblies, where experts present entertaining and informative programs about living things.

Our enrichment program, open to students in grades 3-5, allows more academically talented students to explore interests and activities not available in the regular curriculum. Students edit the Bull Frog, learn to run a recess popcorn business, program computers, produce plays, and pursue more individual interests with the help and encouragement of Mr. Dan Page, program director.

Lamprey River Elementary School faculty always contributes time, energy, and expertise to this school district over and above normal expectations. Teachers meet with parents, work on curriculum, are involved in projects such as: nature trail; conduct and attend workshops and seminars; and serve on school district committees. Perhaps no one showed more interest of this kind of commitment and dedication than Mrs. Elsie Cate, third grade teacher who retired this past year. For those of us that had the pleasure of working with Mrs. Cate, she lived her philosophy of giving 100% to the children each day. On the behalf of the many children you served — thank you, Mrs. Cate.

This kind of dedication is typical of another person who also gave much to the children and parents of Raymond — Mrs. Charlyne Allard, School Nurse, who passed away this summer. Whether bandaging a scrape or listening to a student's problems, Mrs. Allard always related to children with compassion and caring. She exemplified the highest ideals of school nursing and made a reality of the goal of helping children lead healthier and happier lives.

Professionals such as these, along with the consistent support of the community, create the opportunities for children to be successful at Lamprey River Elementary School.

RAYMOND MIDDLE SCHOOL

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

DONNA BOROWICK — PRINCIPAL

The 1986-87 school opening was considerably smoother than the previous year, due to the return of a majority of our professional staff. The new staff members joining us have brought with them strong middle school backgrounds which have enhanced our middle school atmosphere.

Although we are still struggling with overcrowded conditions, we are optimistic about this year's accomplishments. One of the major changes for this year has been organizing the middle school into House Groups. To initiate the implementation of a Middle School Program that responds to the particular needs of eleven to fourteen year old students, we have organized our students and staff into House Groups. Our House Groups consist of units of students from grades six through eight. By using these groups of students we have a selection of students from grades six through eight in each house group. This grouping of students causes a more cohesive spirit and generates a positive school attitude independent of specific grade level characteristics. It prohibits the development of condescending attitudes of older students towards younger ones by uniting their efforts and fostering the cooperation necessary to achieve shared goals.

The Middle School Enrichment Program involves approximately 55 students. Enrollment in the program changes as projects and units are completed and new ones have begun. Through the end of the second quarter in January, several groups of students in grades 6 - 8 have worked on the Middle School newspaper, "The Tablet", solving an artifact box which is a program coordinated through the University of Conn.; and compiling a slide-audio presentation for the nature trail committee and Middle School Parent Core Group. The projects have included camera and darkroom technology, writing, art, research skills, computer work and organizational skills. A special project involving use of a pinhole camera for grade 7 science classes involved use of the darkroom facilities and working with high school students who have independent studies in photography. For the remainder of the year, work will continue on the middle school newspaper photography groups, nature exploration and independent units as needed.

This is the first year our middle school students have had organized instructions on the computers. Mr. McDonough has been working with the students and staff in classrooms and in the computer lab.

The class trips for this year will be Nature's Classroom for the sixth grade and Washington, D.C. for the eighth grade. The students have been fund-raising to offset the cost of the trips.

The school nurse has been doing height, weight and vision testing on all the middle school students. Athletic exams were done on a number of students. This exam included a blood pressure check and an exam by the school doctor. All students in the middle school have immunization records on file.

The faculty and administrators at the middle school are looking forward to the completion of the building projects and the renovations which will allow the Raymond Middle School to be the only occupants of our present facility.

The enrollment figures as of January 30, 1987, are as follows:

GRADE 6	113
GRADE 7	99
GRADE 8	92

RAYMOND HIGH SCHOOL

Principal's Report

DENIS R. JOY, PRINCIPAL

As this report is written, the first real signs of the "new" Raymond High School are appearing; lots of large earth-moving equipment; trenches dug for footings; materials ready to construct forms.

Along with the new building, we are gearing up for a new, vigorous assault on improving all facets of the school.

For example:

1. We have an R-12 mathematics curriculum committee at work.
2. We are establishing a fifth-year of mathematics for those students with exceptional math skills.
3. A French program will be implemented to complement our present Spanish offerings.
4. We hope to add more laboratory time in those sciences requiring it.

Our co-curricular programs are improving. The quality of our athletic teams and music organizations is positive. They will "fly faster and higher" if we can continue to increase the number of students who participate in clubs and on teams. Parents can be especially helpful in encouraging their children to participate.

Enrichment Program

This year we have thirty-five students in grades nine through twelve participating in the Enrichment Program. The most obvious product of the Enrichment program is our American Scholastic Press Association National First Place award winning school newspaper, The Raymond Voice, which all of you receive in the mail. Raymond High School students do all of the writing, editing, proofreading, photography, layout, and circulating.

Other Enrichment students gain independent study credit in graphic arts and some work as mentors at the Lamprey River Elementary School.

Health

Raymond High School students participated in the preschool hearing/vision screening program conducted by the Bureau of Maternal and Child Health at the Congregational Church. The students received a letter of commendation from the sponsors.

Two hundred students were given athletic physicals and one hundred and nine students received height, weight, vision, and hearing examinations during the past year.

SCHOOL LUNCH REPORT

1985-86

As the school year comes to an end and the new year begins shortly, we have a golden opportunity to again reflect on the past and plan for the future.

As we look to the future of the Raymond School Lunch Program, we see many major opportunities for growth for each of us, and for our schools and community.

Ensuring quality programs is the number one action for 1986-87. The quality of school food service nutrition programs is a major concern to each of us employed in the field, as well as those individuals who are employed in support industries.

Students today demand and have a right to receive:

1. High quality nutritious lunches
2. A variety of choices
3. Opportunities to learn nutrition concepts
4. Good service
5. Pleasant cafeteria surroundings

At Raymond, we have quality, nutritious lunches and some choices — the future will bring more. Good service is a must, and pleasant cafeteria surroundings are here, but improvement is needed. Nutrition education is available to all food service staff members and most of our staff, in Raymond, are certified in the New Hampshire School Food Service Association. We have some nutrition education resources for students but more are needed. The future will bring us many good things and we will learn from our past also.

We will always be in the "battle of the budget" for our federal monies for all children participating in the national school lunch programs, but with the support of our state agencies and community, we can maintain our present funding.

Our staff is becoming a professional work force, and we will continue to offer a full nutrition program to all children.

Susan Marangelli

AUDITOR'S REPORT ON FINANCIAL PRESENTATION

To the Members of the School Board
Raymond School District
Raymond, New Hampshire

We have examined the general purpose financial statements of the Raymond School District and the combining fund and account group financial statements of the School District as of and for the year ended June 30, 1986, as listed in the table of contents. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1B, the general purpose financial statements referred to above do not include the General Fixed Asset Group of Accounts, which should be included to conform with generally accepted accounting principles. The amount that should be recorded in the General Fixed Assets Account Group is not known.

In our opinion, except that omission of the General Fixed Asset Group of Accounts results in an incomplete presentation, as explained in the above paragraph, the general purpose financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of the Raymond School District, at June 30, 1986, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. Also, in our opinion, the combining fund and account group financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of each of the funds and account groups of the Raymond School District, at June 30, 1986, and the results of operations of such funds for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the general purpose financial statements taken as a whole and on the combining fund and account group financial statements. The accompanying financial information listed as supporting schedules in the table of contents is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements of the Raymond School District. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the general purpose, combining fund and account group financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements of each of the respective funds and account groups taken as a whole.
